

Worksheet for Comparing Costs to Financial Resources 2011-2012

Financial aid is based on "Cost of Attendance" budgets. The Cost of Attendance example below is one semester for a full-time, undergraduate students "not living with parents." Your actual costs will vary depending on your semester courses, major, and living choices.

Estimated Direct Costs	Idaho Resident	Non-Resident	Your Costs	Your Financial Resources	Amount
Student Fees*	$2,783	$7,983		Scholarships
SHIP insurance ($811)
Books	$ 600	$ 600		Grants
Room & Board	$3,638	$3,638
Subtotal Direct Costs	$7,021	$12,221		Student Loans
Indirect Costs
Miscellaneous Personal	$1,481	$1,481		Parent PLUS or Alternative loans
Transportation	$ 1,114	$1,269		Out of Pocket
Total Costs	$ 9,616	$14,971		Total Financial Resources
Difference between Your Costs and Your Financial Resources =

* Exact amount of fees will be higher if you have lab or workshop fees, new student curriculum fee, private music lessons, overload fees and such.